| How does it feel when something doesn't go according to plan? How do you react when plans you've made are interrupted or changed? Why?                       |
|                                                                                                                                                              |
| ad Acts 4:1–7  How did the priests and temple officials react to the message that Peter gave? How did the message of Jesus challenge their plans for Israel? |
|                                                                                                                                                              |
| Why is it important that Luke tells us that even when Peter and John were arrested, many people who heard believed? (vv. 3–4)                                |
|                                                                                                                                                              |

| Read Acts 4:8–12 4) What happens to strengthen Peter to speak so boldly to the council before him? How should this encourage us in our walk with God?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
